

GRAND LODGE A.:F.: & A.:M.: of NEBRASKA
GOLD PAN AWARD

The Gold Pan Award is awarded each year by the Grand Lodge of Nebraska to that Nebraska lodge which, in the opinion of the Grand Lodge Awards Committee, has contributed extraordinary service to or advancement of Freemasonry in Nebraska, or has shown the greatest improvement or innovation in its activities. This award was originally given to the Grand Lodge of Nebraska by the Grand Lodge of Alaska in recognition of our foresight in recognizing their sovereignty. Lodges wishing consideration for this award should complete the following evaluation form and send it to the Grand Lodge Office postmarked no later than December 31.

Nomination Form – January through December, 20_____

_____ Lodge No. _____, _____, Nebraska

Prepared by: _____

Signature: _____

Date: _____ Telephone: _____

Please describe the activity, event or program nominated. Please include the date of the activity and its duration.

Please note the number of lodge members involved and other involved individuals or groups.

Please describe the benefit of this activity to any specific group or individual.

Please describe the benefit of this activity to your local lodge.

Please describe the benefit of this activity to the Nebraska Grand Lodge.

Please describe the benefit of the activity to Freemasonry, in general.

Please attach any materials, i.e., news articles, programs, publicity, etc., which would aid the Awards Committee in evaluating your program. If applying on the basis of improvement, you must submit a Rock Maul Form for the present year and the previous year.